The fourth meeting of the Central Asia Seminar Group. 7th March 2020.

Ancient Peoples: Modern Methods

10:00 - 10:30: REGISTRATION

10:30 - 11:00: Welcome

11:00 - 11:30: Loren Cowin Mapping Medieval Merv

11:30 - 12:00: Carmen Ting The (Silk) Road not taken? Reconsidering the role of Central Asia in the making of Islamic glazes during the 9th to 13th centuries CE

12:00 - 12:30: Lauren Morris Kushan middlemen on the Silk Road: the past, present, and future of a historiographic construct

12:30 - 14:00: LUNCH

14:00 - 14:30: Katie Campbell Integrating legacy data with recent fieldwork at urban sites in Central Asia

14:30 - 15:00: Aydogdy Kurbanov The Origin of the Hephthalites and Development of their State

15:00 - 15:30: Simone Mantellini Mapping the Cultural Landscape of the Samarkand Oasis, Uzbekistan

15:30 - 16:00: TEA BREAK Leventis Gallery

16:00 - 16:30: Sara Peterson From Bactria to Chorasmia: connections across the Oxus around the 1st century CE

16:30 - 17:00: Marco Nebbia Digital technologies for the documentation and protection of archaeological landscapes in Central Asia

17:00 - 17:30: Roland Lin The UNESCO Silk Roads project in Central Asia

17:30 - 19:00: RECEPTION Senior Common Room: Sixth Floor

Sponsored by:

Central Asian Archaeological Landscapes project

CAAL

Association for Central Asian Civilisations and Silk Road Studies

Institute of Archaeology, UCL, London